

Darcy Baroudi, Finance Manager

Darcy joined the Construction Exchange in May 2013. She is responsible for maintaining the financial records for the Construction Exchange, as well as its many affiliated Companies and Membership Associations. Any invoice received, or email that says “checking on payment status” is from her.

When not busy “keeping the books”, Darcy enjoys spending time with family and friends, kayaking, bike riding, and reading. She is also a volunteer with Young Life. Darcy, her husband Dave, and black lab Sage, live in North Tonawanda where they raised two daughters, Kristen and Anna. Kristen and her husband Matt, live in the Chicago area where Darcy hopes they will consider providing her with a grandchild. Anna and her husband Nick, live in WNY and are the parents of Callie and Jackson.

Playing with her grandchildren is Darcy’s favorite thing to do – if they have had their naps!

